Jesus says God will send a Comforter

Here is something to pass the time at home as we can't meet in church at the moment – a story and some activities.

Story

On the last evening that Jesus spent with his friends and they all had supper together, he tried to explain to them that this was their last meal together and give them some good advice that they would remember when he was no longer with them. They did not realise that soon he would be arrested by the authorities and put to death. But afterwards they did remember what he had said to them and it was a great comfort to them.

'When I have to go away,' said Jesus, 'and I go back to be with my father, God, he will send you a Comforter, the Holy Spirit, who will be with you. It will be like having a Helper, specially for you, someone who will stand by you always. Don't be frightened and don't be worried. If you love me, I will be with you.'

WORD SEARCH

On the next two pages there are pictures of lots of things that you might like doing. Can you find the words that describe them in the word search grid?

COLOURING PAGE

What cheers you up? Think of the things that are Comforters for you. You can draw other things in the space in the middle, or cut them out and make them into a long banner.

Each night, as you go to sleep, think of three happy things from your day to be thankful for.
