

2 Samuel 18:5-9,15,31-33

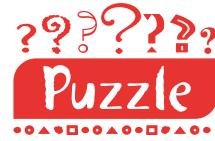

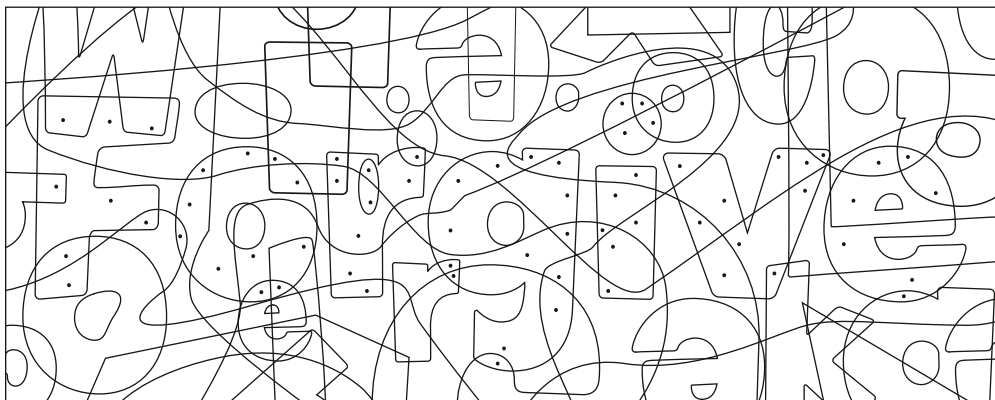

David mourns his son, even after they had fallen out for many, many years.

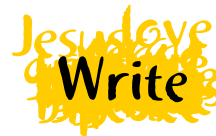

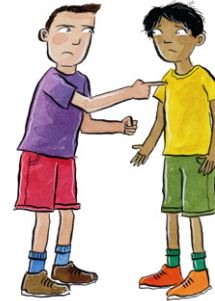

David weeps at the loss of his son, even after fighting each other for many years.

Colour the spotted sections to show what David and Absalom could have done to improve their relationship.

Match the picture to show how we can make injustice better with justice.

What would have happened if Absalom had said sorry instead of taking revenge? Imagine you are Absalom and write a letter to David saying sorry.
